HISTORY OF ST. BRUNO'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

St. Bruno's parish began as a mission of Du Quoin served by the Rev. Charles Klocke, who ministered a large territory. Sacred Heart in Du Quoin had built a church in 1868. In 1871, the increase in the congregation was so large that it was broken up into three sections with Sacred Heart at Du Quoin, St. Mary Magdalen's at Todd's Mill and St. Bruno's at Pinckneyville. A large part of the Pinckneyville parish were immigrants from Bavaria and Germany.

St. Bruno's built a brick church and on May 26, 1872, the first High Mass was conducted by Father Klocke for the Feast of the Blessed Trinity. In 1878, Rev. L. Reisen became the first pastor in residence. He was followed in 1879 by Rev. Klocke until the Rev. Henry Ader arrived. Rev. William Krug took over in 1883 but was forced to leave because of ill health. He returned to his German homeland to recover, but he died there in 1886. Rev. Joseph Schneider came as a substitute and remained until his death in 1917. Rev. Charles Strumpen was pastor until 1923. Rev. Joseph Munier came then, with the Rev. James Calhoun coming as his assistant for 1955-1956. Rev. James McCormick was at St. Bruno's from 1956 to 1963; Rev. Glennon Sims, 1963 to 1973; Rev. Timothy Foley, 1973 to 1987; Rev. Wojcik, 1987-1993; and Rev. James Nall as of 1993.

One reference states that church members were buried in the Pinckneyville city cemetery before a Catholic cemetery was established. Bill Timpner, the current president of the Perry County Historical Society, supplied the following information on the cemetery deed:

"Mary J. Ritchie, widow, Lorette Ritchie
Emerson and husband G. W. and Lizzie L.
McCandless and husband W. L. heirs of
Jas. Ritchie, deceased,

Warranty Deed. $1.
Dated March 12, 1881.
Filed July 20 1882.
Deed record 11, page 355.

To

St. Bruno Roman Catholic Church

Conveying All that part of the SW 1/4 of SW 1/4, Section 14, T5S.R3W lying north of the Cairo Short Line R.R., for cemetery purposes. Dower and homestead relinquished. Signed under seal, and acknowledged on its date by Thos. Boyd, Notary Public, Perry county, with Notarial seal affixed.

No reservation of coal. "

Jas. Ritche is probably the James Ritchie, burial # 62; Lizzie L. McCandless, # 64; and W. L. McCandless, (Dr. William), # 65.

One interesting story has been told regarding the cemetery. It was said that when the railroad was to be constructed some of the stones were pulled out and thrown over to be out of the way.

HISTORY OF ST. BRUNO'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

As with any work of this kind there will be errors. For these we apologise. I am certain there are many errors in the priests spelling of names in the death and baptism books. These have been copied "as is". For these errors we do not take responsibility.

I want to express my thanks to Father Nall for allowing the copying of the priceless old death and baptism records. I also give a big "Thank You" to secretary Marguerite Spencer for her assistance.

I also want to thank a young man who has given me so much help with the computer. He wishes to remain anonymous. I could have not done this without his assistance. THANK YOU, Frenchie!!!!

Rev. William Krug took over in 1883 but was forced to leave because of ill health. He returned to his German homeland to recover, but he died there in 1885. Rev. Joseph Schneider came as a substitute and remained until his death in 1917. Rev. Charles Stumpen was pastor until 1923. Rev. Joseph Munier came then, with the Rev. James Cathlamet coming as his assistant for 1925-1926. Rev. James McCormick was at St. Bruno's from 1926 to 1963. Rev. Glenn Sims, 1963 to 1973; Rev. Timothy Foley, 1973 to 1987; Rev. Joseph, 1987-1993; and Rev. James Nall as of 1993.

One reference states that church members were buried in the Pinedale city cemetery before a Catholic cemetery was established. Bill Timmer, the current president of the Perry County Historical Society, supplied the following information on the cemetery death:

Warranty Deed, 21	May J. Ritchie, widow, Lorette Ritchie
Dated March 12, 1881	Timmer and husband G. W. and Lizzie L.
Filed July 20 1882	McCandless and husband W. L. heirs of

Jas. Ritchie is probably the James Ritchie, burial # 63; Lizzie L. McCandless, # 64; and W. L. McCandless, (Dr. William), # 65.

*St. Bruno's Baptisms
thru 1900*

ST. BRUNO'S BAPTISMS

The first date given is the baptism date, the second date is the birth date. Please remember this work is COPIED. No attempt has been made to correct names to today's spelling. If the priest misspelled a name, it remains misspelled. (Note mother Elisabeth's maiden name in ARMSTRUTZ below). Some of the handwriting in the book is so poor that reading it is almost impossible.

Many of the letters in the years from Nov. 1879 to Nov. 1883, made by Rev. Henry Ader, are as the Germans would write them and this compounded the problem. It is also difficult to translate the Latin given names into today's usage. We have found discrepancies between the dates in the books and dates on tombstones. This work should only serve as a reference, not as a fact.

Also copied were some marriage dates which were written in the margin of the pages. About a dozen baptisms, of special interest to the researcher, have been included for the years between 1900 and 1917.

d/o = daughter of s/o = son of, ch/o = child of s = sponsor or godparent
